Chaminade University of Honolulu

Economic Education Center for Excellence

K-12 Educator Workshop

Summer 2026

Participants and impact

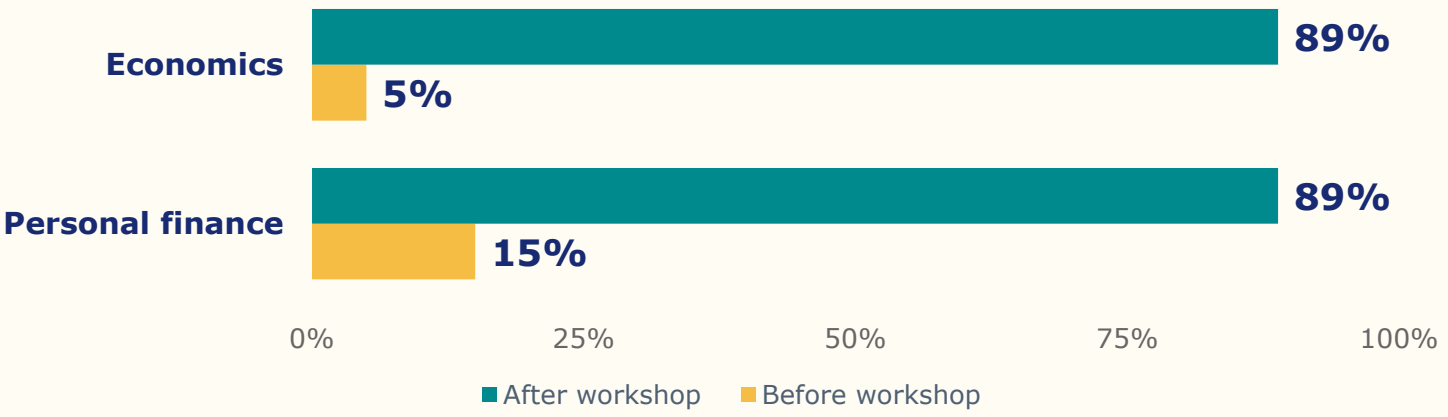

21
Teachers participated

17
Schools represented

65%
Title I schools

Stronger teaching confidence

Percentage of teachers rating their confidence 4 or 5 out of 5

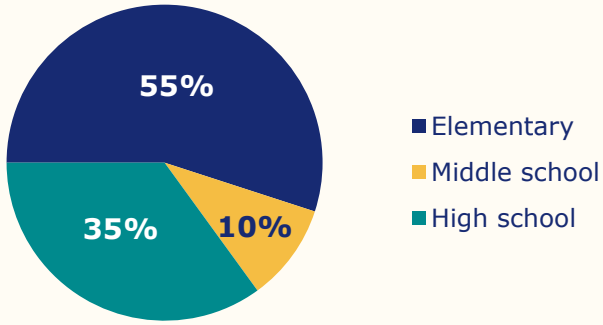

100% would recommend the workshop

Chaminade University of Honolulu
ECONOMIC EDUCATION CENTER for EXCELLENCE

Our teachers and their classrooms

Across grade levels

Across subjects

General education

Languages and social studies

STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics)

Business and personal finance

Special education

Schools represented

Āliamanu Middle School

August Ahrens Elementary School

ʻEwa Beach Elementary School

Governor Sanford B. Dole Middle School

James Campbell High School

Kapolei High School

Kauluwela Elementary School

Mākaha Elementary School

Makalapa Elementary School

Mililani Waena Elementary School

Nānākuli High & Intermediate School

Pearl City High School

President Abraham Lincoln Elementary School

President William McKinley High School

Royal Elementary School

Waialua Elementary School

Waipahu High School

What our participants say

> This workshop opened my eyes to my own values in economics and also about my personal finances, which makes me excited and confident to be able to present financial literacy to my students.

> I had no idea this class was the missing piece that would pull my full vision together.

Visit the EECE website

Programs, resources, and future workshop information